

HOW A GROUP IN MADISON SHOWED LOVE FOR A COMMUNITY IN SUMPANGO.

Heart To Heart Experiences Newsletter—Volume 1, Issue 3

THANK YOU
FOR MAKING
COME TO A HOUSE ABOUT A HOUSE
A HUGE SUCCESS!

*Amazing things happen
when your story intersects with the stories of those most in need. That's where change begins. Story to Story. Heart to Heart.*

FOUR FAMILIES. THREE NEW HOMES TO BE BUILT IN JANUARY 2017.

Most families in Sumpango live:

- In an 8' x 12' single room made with corrugated metal walls
 - On a floor that is compacted dirt
 - With an overhead ceiling/roof that is recycled corrugated metal
 - Supported with three or four wood posts

H2H will build three homes for families in the community.

- Build an 8' x 12' home made with a poured concrete floor
- Build walls made with cinder blocks
- Install a door and create a window
- Create a ceiling/roof with new corrugated metal
- Support the ceiling/roof with 3-4 wood beams

SUMPANGO FAMILY #1

Father: Byron is a farmer.

Mother: Mayra is a stay-at-home mother. She suffers from health issues.

Daughter: Joseline is in 3rd grade.

Sons: Jamilton and Nestor.
Jamilton is in 7th grade. Nestor dropped out of school.

The family has lived in Sumpango for 30 years. The family currently lives in a one room house. The addition to the house is for the children. The space will allow privacy between the parents and children.

SUMPANGO FAMILY #2

Father: David Stacul Sequen is a mason. He has had a hard time finding work. He is also having problems with his eye-sight.

Mother: Rosalicia Anona is a stay-at-home mother. Her doctor struggles to keep her blood pressure under control.

Daughter: Silvia Yolanda is a secretary by trade, but she does not have a job. She would like to go to the university to become a psychologist. She was diagnosed with an ovarian cyst. Silvia's illness is not being treated because she does not have money to pay for treatment.

David and Rosalicia have been married for 26 years. The family has placed their trust in the Lord that He can perform a miracle.

SUMPANGO FAMILY #3

Father: Edwin Geovanni Chile Jil is 22 years old. He works as a farmer with his father in law.

Mother: Cindy Alejandría Laroj is 23 years old. She weaves traditional fabric belts by hand to sell to friends and neighbors.

Children: Axel Geovanni is 2 years, 7 months old. Jeferson Jose is 3 months old.

Edwin, Cindy and the children are currently living with Cindy's parents. Cindy's dad gave them a piece of land so that they can build this house.

SUMPANGO FAMILY #4

Father: Santiago Asturias

Mother: Juana

Children: Santiago and Juana have 10 children and two grandchildren

Juana raised her first 8 children alone. Her husband left her. She rented a room for 16 years with the money she made from working in the fields. Juana brought the children to help her and worked while carrying her babies on her back. She saved enough money and purchased a piece of land to have a house built for her family. Four of her children work and help to support the family as well.

The family of 13 currently lives in a house made of tin donated by City Hall of Sumpango.

With an open heart and positive attitude, Heart To Heart Experiences strives to build lasting relationships with the extremely worthy individuals and families that we serve in the Sumpango community.

Supporting change in a person's life takes only a moment.
The results last a lifetime.
